

Nick Vieth was raised in North Idaho, graduated from the University of Idaho and obtained his law degree from Gonzaga University. Mr. Vieth's legal background and experience has been exclusively in federal and state criminal defense. He is a former Assistant Federal Defender from both the Eastern District of Washington and Idaho and has extensive litigation experience.

Mr. Vieth is licensed to practice in both Idaho and Washington, the Federal District Courts of Idaho and Washington, and the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals. As such, his practice ranges from federal drug trafficking, tax issues, and environmental concerns, to accusations of embezzlement, Medicare and Medicaid fraud and pre-indictment representation.

Mr. Vieth believes that in order to secure and maintain a true system of justice and fairness, zealous advocacy in the defense of the accused is required.
